Edgbaston is a well-established, sought-after location for forward thinking companies within a thriving commercial, leisure and lifestyle community.

Voted one of the 'best places to live in Britain' by the Sunday Times, its elegant period properties, green spaces and tree-lined avenues bely its close proximity to Birmingham's bustling city centre, just a mile away.

At the cultural heart of Edgbaston sits Edgbaston Village, a vibrant leisure and lifestyle location where award-winning restaurants nestle alongside stylish independent boutiques, spas and coffee shops including the Michelin-starred Simpsons, award-winning dining at Loki and Chapter, the popular pizzeria Smoke + Ash, Boston Tea Party, and the picturesque Birmingham Botanical Gardens.

But don't let the gentle demeanour fool you: Edgbaston means business. The nearby Edgbaston Medical Quarter is home to a genuinely world-class medical and life sciences community of hospitals, clinics, specialist care centres and training facilities. In addition, the well established commercial office space provides a flourishing business populace.

With all this and more within a short stroll, 100 Hagley Road not only makes commercial sense, but also significantly contributes to the health and wellbeing of employees.
